THE REBBE

RABBI MENACHEM M. SCHNEERSOHN

of righteous memory

The Rebbe's inclusive vision, unconditional love of humanity, leadership and dedication, are the inspiration and guiding light for the Chabad Jewish Center of Renton.

The Jewish Calendar is published annually by Chabad Jewish Center of Renton, 3929 NE 5th Place Renton, WA 98056 It is sent free to all members and friends. Issue #1, July 2020

Dear Friend,

We are so pleased to present you with Renton's very first Jewish Art Calendar for the Jewish year 5781 (2020-2021). During a time when connection and community is so missed, it is our hope that this calendar brings the light and warmth of our community, and our shared Jewish heritage and traditions into your home and heart.

As Rosh Hashanah approaches, it is valuable to reflect on the past year. We are grateful that 5780 has been an incredible period of Jewish growth and awareness across Renton, Kent, and Auburn.

Our programs and activities have, thank G-d, expanded and attracted so many community members from all walks of life. While our nation and world has been hit with the disruptions surrounding COVID-19, we have been grateful for the technological gifts at our disposal which have enabled us to ensure that many of our programs and activities can remain open, whether by temporarily moving online or by holding socially distanced events.

This coming year as well, as we advertise activities for various dates through the year, we recognize that there may still need to be some adjustments as we get closer to the intended date. We will keep you informed and always do what is in the best interest of the health and safety of the community.

This year, our JUDA Kids Club, Renton's only Hebrew School of the Arts, is back for another great year, whether outdoors and socially distant or online, providing Jewish kids with a safe, enriching space to experience the beauty of their Jewish heritage and culture and make new friends.

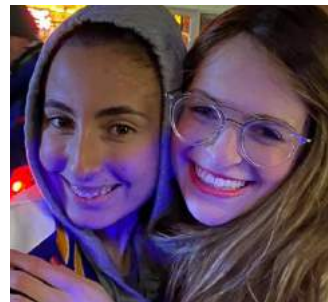

At Chabad, we are proud to offer a warm and welcoming environment to all Jews no matter background, financial status, or religious level of observance, and we share the universal values of ethics and morality as taught in the Torah for all mankind. As we begin the new year, we look forward to expanding our activities, and we welcome you to participate. Whether it be our Holiday programming, women's gatherings, one-on-one study, religious services, children's JUDA Hebrew School and JKIDS Holiday activities, please join and learn for yourself what it's all about.

We extend our thanks to the advertisers in this calendar for their support of the Jewish community throughout Renton, Kent, and Auburn. Our work would not be possible without each one of them. We encourage you to show your appreciation to them through your patronage.

As we begin a new year, we and our family extend our heartfelt wishes to you and your loved ones for a blessed New Year in every respect. May you be inscribed for a year of life and light and joy, and may we all be blessed with a year of good health, prosperity and peace in the Holy Land of Israel and the world over.

Rabbi Yisroel and Shternie Freitel

ROSH HASHANAH

Among the famous Rosh Hashanah prayers is Avinu Malkeinu, "Our Father, Our King." It describes our unique relationship with G-d as twofold. As our Father, G-d's boundless love assures His forgiveness of our transgressions. Yet He is also an all-powerful King who sets rules meant to enable us to harness our energies for good.

MEZUZAH

The mezuzah, a handwritten scroll containing the Shema, is affixed to the right doorpost. It designates our home as Jewish. Symbolizing G-d's watchful eye upon us, the mezuzah provides protection for its inhabitants, wherever they may be.

CHANUKAH

The best way to combat darkness? Ignite a flame. The menorah's light, which represents spiritual warmth, has far-reaching effects when kindled publicly or visibly. It takes only one individual with one candle to illuminate the world.

The Lubavitcher Rebbe advised, "If you know aleph, you must teach aleph." To help another does not require more qualification than simply finding oneself with the opportunity to do so. If given the chance, grab it.

PURIM

After the Jews' salvation in the story of Purim, Esther requested that the events be recorded for future generations. As her miraculous story shows, no matter how grim or hopeless a situation may seem, G-d can save us in the blink of an eye.

SPLITTING OF THE SEA

Just days after the Jews left Egypt, they found themselves trapped at the vast Sea of Reeds as the Egyptian army approached behind them. Not knowing how to proceed, the Jews watched as Nachshon ben Aminadav heroically plunged into the water, and G-d split it for him. In a situation with seemingly no good options, take hold of your faith and forge ahead, trusting that G-d will have your back.

PRAYER

Even while praying individually and establishing a personal relationship with G-d, we pray in the plural, beseeching Him to provide for "us." More than requesting our personal needs, prayer teaches us to think beyond ourselves and consider our fellow Jew.

SHAVUOT

The holiday of Shavuot commemorates the day we received the Torah. When G-d gave us the Torah upon Mount Sinai, a cosmic change occurred in the world. Until then, the spiritual and physical realms remained separate, unable to be merged. The giving of the Torah on a physical mountain created the possibility of infusing materialism with holiness.

THE KOTEL, WESTERN WALL

In the months of Tammuz and Av we observe "The Three Weeks," the mourning period which commemorates the capture of Jerusalem and subsequent destruction of its Holy Temple. The midrash teaches that when Moshiach comes and rebuilds the third Temple, which will stand forever, these days will be transformed from ones of mourning to joy. On the site of the ruins, construction can take place.

SHABBAT CANDLES

Shabbat candles illuminate our home and brighten the world. In a spiritual sense, light enables us to clearly discern the uniqueness of each individual and the singular contribution he or she offers the world. By fully noticing our fellow Jew and disregarding any superficial differences between us, we usher peace into the world.

TEFILLIN

With the donning of tefillin, three otherwise disparate body parts—mind, heart and hands—are linked. Indeed, if we can unite in harmony our own bodies, we can appreciate that all our actions have collective strength, and harmonize those to impact the world for good.

THE SHOFAR

The sound of the shofar on Rosh Hashanah is that of hope—our soul's yearning for the final shofar blow that will herald the coming of Moshiach. The shofar blast reminds us to repent and re-kindle our connection to G-d, so that we are ready to greet the Moshiach.

Candle Lighting Guide

HOW TO LIGHT SHABBAT CANDLES

- 1. HOW TO: It starts with one light. Add a candle for your spouse, and if you're a mother, one for each child. A girl over the age of three may (with help from Mom) light her own candle.

Before kindling the candles (exact time is mentioned in the bottom of each calendar box), we think of those less fortunate and put a coin in a charity box.

- 2. LIGHT A CANDLE. After the candles are lit, the woman stretches her hands out towards the candles, and moves them inwards in a circular motion – ushering in a special guest, the Shabbat Queen – three times. After the third time, the woman covers her eyes with her hands and recites the following blessing:

- 3. THE BLESSING: Baruch a-ta A-do-nay Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-o-lam a-she-ri ki-dee-sha-nu bi-mitz-vo-tav vi-tzi-va-noo li-had-leek ner shel Sha-bat Ko-desh.

TRANSLATION: Blessed are you, L-rd our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to kindle the light of the Holy Shabbat.

- 4. SAY A PRAYER. The moments immediately after reciting the blessing, while the woman's eyes are still covered, are an extremely auspicious time for her to offer a private prayer for anything her heart desires. It is customary to use this special time to appeal to G-d for children who will glow with the radiance of the Torah, and that He light up the world with the light of the Redemption.
